

6516207147.txt

We are vigorously opposed to any attempts to limit satellite radio from broadcasting weather and traffic info. Unlike commercial radio, satellite radio provides timely info and one does not have to listen to radio chatter, commercials and music to finally get the weather and traffic info that is vital to driving. Satellite radio is a choice that many people like us have chosen as we can listen to what we want, when we want and everywhere we go in this country.